

DIRECTIONS:

For each English noun-adjective phrase in the sentence, provide the correct Latin phrase.

Be careful to consider what case, declension, gender, and number the nouns and adjectives are.

Example:

puer videt (his tired father).

Answer: patrem fessum

1. comites (towards the brave princes) procedunt.

2. multi comites (in the city) sunt.

3. (many ships) ad Troiam navigant.

4. pueri manent (near the doors).

5. pueri currunt (away from the angry teacher)

Homework

6. rex est (on the ship).

7. puella salutatur (dear brother).

8. (the bad dogs) ab puero currit.

9. Troiani fugiunt (through the city).

10. sedeo (in my garden).

11. reges pugnant (with the brave princes).

12. (the happy boys and girls) domum eunt.